Read the short passage and answer the questions.

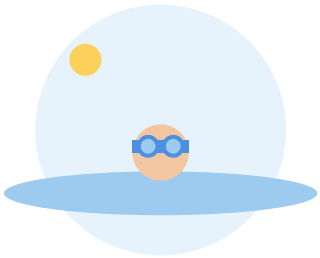

The Swimming Lesson

Child is going to her swimming lesson with her grandma. She puts on her goggles and waves to her coach, Ms. Lee. The pool is warm today. First, Child holds a kickboard and kicks her feet. Splash, splash! Her favorite part is blowing bubbles in the water.

"Can you float on your back?" asks Ms. Lee.

"I can try!" says Child. She lies back and floats like a starfish.

At the end of the lesson, Ms. Lee gives her a gold star. Grandma gives her a big hug. Child feels so proud!
