Visiting the Library

Alissa is going to the library with her dad and her friend Alison. She can hardly wait! It is Saturday morning and the library is having a puppet show today. When they arrive, kids are already lining up for story time. Alissa loves reading, but her favorite part of the library is picking out new books. In the middle of story time, the librarian pulls out a fuzzy puppet dragon.

"Dad! Can we please check out the dragon book?" asks Alissa.

"Of course," says her dad.

They find the book on the shelf and bring it to the front desk. Before they go home, Alissa picks three more books to read that week. Alissa has a wonderful time at the library!
