Read the short passage and answer the questions.

Snow Day

Child is playing outside with her brother Alan. She can hardly wait! It snowed all night and their whole yard is covered in white. When they step outside, their boots crunch in the deep snow. Child loves sledding, but her favorite part of snow days is building a snowman. In the middle of playing, Child finds the perfect pile of fresh snow near the porch.

"Look! Can we please build the snowman right here?" asks Child.

"Of course," says Alan.

They roll three big snowballs and stack them into a snowman. They finish him off with a carrot nose and two button eyes. Child has a wonderful time on her snow day!
