Read the short passage and answer the questions.

The Farmers Market

Child is going to the farmers market with her dad. She can hardly wait! It is a cool Saturday morning, and the market is full of stands with fruit, bread and flowers. Child loves looking at all the colors, but her favorite part is tasting the honey. In the middle of their visit, a farmer holds out a little spoon.

"Would you like a sample?" asks the farmer.

"Yes, please!" says Child. The honey is sticky and sweet.

Before they leave, Dad buys a basket of red strawberries. They carry it home and eat some with lunch. What a tasty trip to the market!
